How to Earn Units

You may earn units by attending events at our local chapter, Contra Costa Reading Association (CCRA), and/or the California Reading Association (CRA). Units are based on the amount of participation. Therefore, you must attend four CRA webinars (chatting throughout them) to earn a unit or by attending in person 4 CCRA meetings and completing pre and post reflections on each event.

Giving a CCRA Professional Development Book Talk or participating in our CCRA Book Club will also earn you one unit for each. However if you give a short talk on your insights from our CCRA Book Club, you may earn another unit.

The CCRA September webinar is longer with additional assignments that may earn you one unit. The CRA Conference on Oct. 21-22 is worth up to two units if you attend both days.

The UOP fee is $80 per unit.
